When you buy goods on credit you pay a larger profit than if you paid cash; when you spend your money with a merchant who sells on credit you also pay that large profit, for he can't sell you goods cheaper than he does your neighbor, if you do pay cash.

Our terms are CASH. We don't sell on credit to anybody, and it will not take long for you to see that you can save money by dealing with us. We are satisfied that our $1.50 Shoes for Ladies and Misses are the best in town. Try a pair of them.

Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

THE COUNTY CANDIDATES.

The Opening Day of the Canvass at Hodgins' Store.

On yesterday we drove out to Hodgins' Store, in Sumner township, to attend the opening of the political ball in this county. Sumner is a strong republican precinct, but there was a very small attendance at the speaking yesterday.

The candidates for county offices merely announced themselves. They were allowed five minutes each, but none of them consumed the time. Mr. Stratford, the fusion candidate for register of deeds, asked to be allowed more than five minutes in order to make a few statements in regard to his candidacy. He was granted the privilege, and when he finished he had been speaking just four minutes and thirty seconds. But he got in his statements, which were to the effect that he believed all republicans were going to vote for him and that the populists were going to support the republicans. In other words, he believes fusion will fuse.

When the turn of the legislative candidates came around Mr. Bradshaw, republican candidate for the senate made the first speech. He dwelt at considerable length upon his gold bug career and boasted of the fact that he remained a gold-bug when the democratic party deserted, as he claimed, these principles. We asked Mr. Stratford how he liked that and he said: "Oh, that's all right." We take that to mean that Mr. Stratford, as the head of the populist party, thinks more of a gold-bug republican than he does of a free-silver democrat. Mr. Wilson, the democratic candidate for the senate followed in a vigorous speech of thirty minutes in which he showed that he is more than a match for Mr. Bradshaw. The rejoinders of the two men were more spirited and in a few more days the joint discussion promises to become more intensely interesting.

Then followed Messrs. Kennett and Douglas, both making half hour speeches and ten minute rejoinders. Kennett makes a splendid speech and talks in an earnest straightforward manner, calculated to win votes. Douglas came out stronger than any other republican speaker. He ridiculed the democratic cry of negro domination and said that the democrats appointed 107 negro magistrates several years ago, but he did not tell the people that it was done through republican treachery and that it was done by republican members of the legislature whom the democrats allowed to name men in their own counties. He did not tell the people that the democrats thought they were white men, and that when the democrats found out that they had been tricked it was never done again. Douglas vehemently declared he was in favor of white supremacy and that he was opposed to negroes holding office. There were only two or three negroes present. We challenge Mr. Douglas to make that identical speech before a republican audience in Greensboro.

By this time it was getting late and Capt. Bunch and Capt. Forbis only made short speeches. Today the candidates spoke at Pleasant Garden.

THE LARGEST YET.

Mrs. Sol. Weill to Erect a Building For Merchants Grocery Co.

Mrs. Sol. Weill has decided upon the plan of the building she will erect by the side of the one being built for the Simpson-Shields Shoe Co., and it will be a credit to the city. It will be the largest business house in Greensboro being 150 feet long by 314 feet wide and five stories high, with a cellar in the rear, making this part six stories. The building has already been leased for a term of five years to the Merchants' Grocery Company who will move into it as soon as completed. This building is to be fifty feet longer and six feet wider than the Simpson-Shields Shoe Company's, though otherwise the plans of the building will be the same. The front of both will be entirely of granite cut in different shapes making a lovely front. The Merchants' Grocery Co., and the Simpson-Shields Shoe Co., are two of our largest and busiest wholesale houses and have come to stay and grow. We congratulate both of them together with Mrs. Weill.

The Central Land Company through their agents return thanks to the citizens of Greensboro who attended the Lot Sale yesterday. Prices were low, but the land is for sale.

WILL NOT ASSUME DEBT.

Demands Presented in Threatening Words.

CRISIS ABOUT TO BE REACHED.

Judge Day Instructed to Demand The Entire Surrender of Porto Rico Today.

London, Oct. 18.—A dispatch to a London newspaper agency from Paris says:

"Today, (Monday), the conference reached a crisis for the first time. Judge Day presented the demands of the Americans in threatening words. He said that delay was the only possible object attainable by the persistent efforts of the Spanish commissioners to saddle the United States with the Cuban debt, and it would be tolerated no longer, while the United States would neither assume nor guarantee any part of the debt.

"The Spaniards replied that this placed Spain in a position of repudiating or of reducing the face value of the Cuban bonds from 60 to 50 per cent, paying only half the stipulated interest on the reduced value. Before they would adopt either alternative they would surrender to the United States the entire Philippines.

"Judge Day responded that the surrender of the Philippines would probably be demanded irrespective of the Cuban or any other debt.

This, to the Spaniards the first intimation of the intentions of the United States as to the Philippines, resulted in a whispered conference, followed by a request for an adjournment in order to communicate with Madrid. Judge Day said that President McKinley had instructed him to demand the entire surrender of Porto Rico to-morrow (Tuesday), and the delivery of every town to the United States officers before midnight, together with the evacuation of Havana, on or before November 1st, when the United States would be at the gates of the city, ready to take possession.

"There was no alternative offered in the case of either of these demands, and the session consequently was very brief. The American commissioners have received dispatches from Washington, indicating that the administration is irritated and indignant over the delay of the Spanish commissioners."

The Paris correspondent of the Times says:

"At the sitting of the peace commission this (Monday) afternoon the American commissioners officially—and it would seem definitely—rejected the idea of accepting sovereignty over Cuba for the United States."

Have you seen those leather-lined thick soled box calf and vici Men's Shoes that are becoming so popular? You can see nearly a dozen different styles of them in black and winter tans at Thacker & Brockman's; most of the new shapes being made over the new London and English lasts. Prices are extremely low when the quality and style of these shoes is taken in consideration. $2.50 and $3.00 pays for a prime Goodyear, and they are selling two excellent lines of McKay sewed, leather-lined shoes at $2.25.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 18, '98.

Don't fail to hear Mr. Yonan, a native Persian, tomorrow night at the Presbyterian church, on the people and customs of his native land.

Prof. Gentry's famous Dog and Pony show gave two splendid exhibitions here yesterday afternoon and night. The show was everything it was advertised. It was clean in every respect. There was no gambling games connected with it. Should they ever show here again, their tent would not hold the people. They left last night for Winston.

Our Second regiment boys who are here on furloughs which would have expired tomorrow, are pleased at the orders from headquarters, that their furloughs have been indefinitely extended.

The negro Robert Morton, who knocked Officer Burns down yesterday while he had another negro, Fred Adams under arrest, was carried to jail last night by Chief of Police Bennett after a preliminary hearing by Mayor Bradshaw. Adams was fined and discharged. Willis Burns and "Spiky" Cosby, the barbers, who had a scrap yesterday afternoon were tried before the mayor and fined.

The second meeting of the Democratic Club of High Point Township was held last night in the Masonic Hall. After the meeting was called to order by President Dodamead, the "Old North State" was sung by the club, and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and approved. At the first meeting of the club every member was requested to respond to his name last night with at least one new member, and every member that was present brought from one to six new members. Of course, several members who attended the show in the afternoon were absent, but every man that was absent sent word to the club that he would not fail to be present at the next meeting. The roll was increased to 223. Many short and interesting speeches were made by the members; among the number was Lewis Harris, the obliging little Jew, who said: "Senz I lef de ole countries an' bene made a seetizen of dese countries it hez been enjoyment to me to be mit so many goot peoples. I ees glad to be a member of dis democratic club." (Great applause.)

Two of the best talks made were by men who were rocked in republican cradles and who have now seen the error of their way. The father of one of these men has been a republican of office holder for a number of years, but he said he could no longer support him. There were three of these converts and not one of them could be called a turncoat, for they are not seeking offices. The club appointed five men for each precinct as challenge committees. It was also decided that the entire club go in a body to the big barbeque at Thomasville next Saturday and to secure the High Point band to go with them. They will meet again on Thursday or Friday night to decide more definitely on the club attending the big barbeque. The club will go in two squads, one a horse, the other a wheel.

Banner, and Mr. J. H. Prather, Mr. G. H. Gilmer and Mr. John Banner; the bride with her brother, Mr. John Banner, and the groom with his best man, Mr. Chas. E. Brower, of Greensboro.

The beautiful ceremony of the Methodist church was then pronounced in an impressive manner by Rev. H. K. Boyer, while from the organ softly issued the strains of "Oh, Promise Me." Mr. and Mrs. Beard left on the morning train for an extended bridal trip to Washington and New York.

INDECENT SHOWS.

The manager of the London Gaiety Girls gave a Telegram reporter an indecent drubbing last night before the show, we are informed, and denounced this paper for its article concerning the show yesterday.

The Raleigh papers said the show was "bum," and characterized it as "coarse, dirty and disgusting throughout." We copied the article. Manager Bogart told the editor of this paper yesterday he would not play the show. No wonder, that after this, when they finally rented the hall and put on the show, they omitted the most vulgar and indecent part of the performance last night.

The editor of this paper is responsible for its policy, and if the manager of "London Gaiety Girls" is spilling to denounce this paper, personally, the editor is at his service. We refuse to accept advertisements for shows of that class, and we do not feel called upon to apologize to the decency of Greensboro for our position in the matter. A show that is not fit for respectable ladies to witness is not fit to be advertised in a newspaper that goes into our respectable homes. That is our position, and we propose to maintain it.

LOOK AT BOTH.

Last Saturday a colored minister of this city left a communication in this office containing some strictures on the recent manner of dealing with a colored man by a city policeman. The minister told us it contained nothing unkind or bitter. After he was gone, and we had time to read it, we discovered, among other things, the following sentence:

"The so-called slander of Editor Manly, the insolence of negro officials, and the impudence of negro women do not equal it in atrocity."

Knowing something, by experience of the difficulty in managing drunken negroes, and the very trying ordeal a policeman has to go through under such circumstances, we refuse to print the communication and to even up matters in the mind of the minister who wrote it, we refer him to the report of the attack by negroes on a policeman in High Point yesterday in which the officer was knocked down by a negro with a pair of knuckles while attempting to carry a prisoner to the lockup.

SHAFTER'S BAD DAY.

Was in Despair and Offered His Command to Breckenridge.

A special from Lexington, Ky., says: A gentleman who was present in General Shafter's tent before Santiago on the morning of July 3d, when General Shafter was sending his disheartening dispatches to Washington, tells the story of how Shafter sent for General Breckenridge and tried to persuade the veteran to take command of the army, which was already preparing for retreat.

On the morning of July 3d, General Shafter sent for General Breckenridge to come to his tent, where, in addition to the two generals, were Lieutenant S. M. Foote, aide to General Breckenridge, and others. General Shafter was lying ill and exhausted by heat and his great excitement. After some preliminary remarks, he said:

"Breckenridge you must take charge of my army."

General Breckenridge replied: "What for, Shafter?"

"I am sick," was the answer. "Look at the ulcers on my leg. Look at my head. My brain is upset. I'm not fit to lead the army; you must take it."

To this General Breckenridge answered as follows: "Shafter I'd take it in fifteen minutes, but you must listen to me first. You have made ready to retreat. I will not retreat. Tomorrow is the Fourth of July. No army under me retreats on the Fourth of July. I will take your army, but when I do I will order it, not to retreat on the Fourth of July, but to move on Santiago, and I will lead my men. I know they will go. I may die in the attempt, but I am an old man and would as well die here as later."

"But," said General Breckenridge, after a pause to allow the beaten commander to get into his mind the full meaning of the words, "I am not the man to take this command, even though you are not fit to retain it. You know that nothing I do will please the war department. You know that whether I win or lose I will be found fault with. You ought not to give up the command, but if you insist on so doing, you have men here besides me, abundantly able to take your place." Shafter, the story goes, raised personal objections to Wheeler, Lawton and others suggested and ended by agreeing to consider Breckenridge's plea that he continue in command. In the next few hours Cervera's fleet was destroyed and Shafter's courage returned.

MR. BRYAN'S REGRETS.

His Letter Declining to Speak at the Chicago Peace Jubilee.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The following letter of declination has been received from Colonel W. J. Bryan, in response to an invitation to attend the peace jubilee:

"Camp Cuba Libre, Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 16.

"I regret that duties here will prevent an acceptance of the invitation extended by the citizens of Chicago to be present at the national peace jubilee to be held on the 18th and 19th of the present month. The American people are pre-eminently a peace-loving people, and it is fitting that they should celebrate the termination of the present war—a war conceived in an unselfish love for humanity; a war which has demonstrated anew the value of our soldiers and seamen; a war which it is destined, let us hope, to establish in the orient, as well as in the West Indies, that doctrine so sacred to the people of the United States, namely, that governments derive their just powers, not from armies or navies, but from the consent of the governed. Thanking you for honoring me with an invitation, I am,

"Very truly yours,
"Wm. J. Bryan.

TWO CONVICTS ESCAPE.

They Were Federal Prisoners Serving Time for "Moonshining."

Two more convicts shook the dust of the penitentiary off their feet and made a successful escape yesterday morning about ten o'clock.

These were two white Federal prisoners.

Yesterday morning in company with six other convicts they were taken just outside of the stockade, in charge of a guard by the name of W. L. Moring, to work the garden. The squad was digging potatoes when the dash for liberty was made. They made a run toward Rocky branch bottom, and the guard at the Rocky branch pump house was first to discover the fleeing men. Moring was very much astonished by the break and came very near losing his wits, but only for a moment. He levelled his gun and fired two shots at the escaping men, but without apparent effect. The remainder of the squad were taken back to the penitentiary and the alarm given.

Several guards and employees of the penitentiary were dispatched after the escaped convicts, but so far without success.

Enloe and Eaton are the names of men who escaped and were serving out sentences for moonshining. Enloe is from the Western part of the State and leaves nine months unserved. Eaton is from Alabama. Both are young robust men, the first named about twenty years of age and the latter about twenty-four years old. Eaton's face on one side is badly marked by powder.—News and Observer.

THE PARDON MILL.

Pardons No Longer Given Out by the Governor.

Secrecy now shrouds the manipulation of the pardon mill where some months ago its operations were exposed to publicity. Not a cog in this great and powerful machine meets the people's eyes at this interesting stage of the political game. And a curious public is anxious to know what class of work the mill is doing when its grinding hours are being overtaken.

Not a pardon has been given out at the Executive office in many weeks, though Governor Russell announced when he mounted the gubernatorial stand that the pardon mill would be kept in full public view. They say that the Governor has been opening the penitentiary doors frequently of late to convicts in the prison.

Yesterday three of Supt. Mewborne's star boarders were given their liberty, in addition to the two who walked away while the guards were standing looking at them. The three convicts pardoned yesterday by the Governor were:

John Flasher, of Madison county, who was convicted of murder and brought to the pen in '96 to serve a five-year term.

Newton Mace, of Madison, who was also convicted of murder at the same time and sent up for a five year term. London Smolling, of Mitchell, who was convicted of embezzlement and brought to the penitentiary not 30 days ago to serve a nine months term.

None of these pardons were announced at the executive office yesterday.

It is learned that three brothers were pardoned out of the pen a short while ago. The extent of the pardons granted is not known, as they are not given to the public now as in former days.—Morning Post.

The Show Last Night.

Notwithstanding the reputation which the "London Gaiety Girls" brought here, Bogart's opera house was packed to overflowing last night long before the curtain went up. Though the show was not so "bum," it was not "overly" entertaining, and but for a very good ventriloquist and a girl bag-puncher, would have fallen flat with the audience. Those who went to the show expecting to be "shocked" came away disappointed, for outside of about half a dozen rather indecent jokes there was nothing to arouse the indignation of the most modest. A policeman was present to suppress anything indecent, but his services were not needed.

It was announced before the show began that it would change management today and would show again to-night.

Discovered by a Woman

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

ADAMS IS REPUDIATED.

"Won't Be a Party to a Dishonorable Deal," Writes N. W. Brown.

The following is a copy of a circular that is being distributed over Orange county:

"No compromise with dishonor. I will not accept the nomination for Congress under any conditions." A message from Judge Spencer B. Adams to Hon. Thomas Settle, August 30.

Mr. Adams, you stand before the people guilty of duplicity. You went to the judicial convention and asked for the nomination for judge, and pledged your word, if you were nominated 'no power could take you down.'

The following resolutions were adopted in caucus and passed by unanimous vote in open convention in Hillsboro, N. C., Saturday, September 17th, 1898:

RESOLUTIONS.

"Whereas, The republicans of Orange county, in convention assembled do hereby accept co-operation with the Populists; therefore

"Resolved, 1. That we must respectfully request the powers that forced co-operation to allow us in this senatorial district a republican candidate, also a true republican candidate for the Fifth congressional district.

"Resolved, 2. That we pledge the support of the republican party of Orange to the support of the Hon. Spencer B. Adams for judge, and hereby instruct our chairman and county executive committee to place no other Adams ticket in Orange.

"Resolved, 3. That we denounce the 'powers that be' for using their influence to thwart the will of the people in the Fifth Congressional District and their effort to humiliate and defeat that gallant fighter of Democracy, the true and tried Republican, Hon. Thomas Settle."

Honest republicans of the Fifth Congressional district, don't let your manhood and your rights be trampled upon by a few political hucksters who would sell your birthright for a 'mess of pot-age.' You are under no party obligations to vote for Spencer B. Adams for Congress; he is not the nominee of the grand old republican party; he was forced on the district by Senator Pritchard's pie distributor, Collector
Carl Duncan, who lives in Carteret county.

Repudiate the meddler on November 8th, and we guarantee two years hence the people of the Fifth Congressional district will have a voice in saying who their nominee shall be.

Don't be a party to a dishonorable deal in public or private life.

N. W. Brown,
Member of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, who never scratched a republican ticket.

ROW IN THE CAMP.

A Wilmington Negro City Official Aspires for The Prize Ring.

It was a case of "pot calls the kettle black." A negro city official came to blows with a negro man, while several negroes looked on, and both were arrested by a negro deputy sheriff.

The fracas took place yesterday afternoon directly in the pale of Justice McGowan's temple of justice, in the old court house building, on Princess street, between Second and Third.
John H. Webber, the negro member of the board of audit and finance, and another negro man, Henry Bowen, were standing talking in the corridor of the building. A dispute arose and several abuse remarks were passed between the twain. Then Webber made a vicious lunge at Bowen and was about to follow his aggressive work up when Deputy Sheriff Sellars, negro, jumped in between them and arrested Webber. The deputy took his prisoner in Justice McGowan's court, where he submitted to a charge of assault and battery.—Wilmington Messenger.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.
"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place;
what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (I. e. Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place.
But if you can get Dr. Inoculation, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inoculation would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The Difference.
In Texas the republicans and populist fusionists have nominated a blind man for Congress. This is a clear case of the blind leading the blind. Over in North Carolina the pop-rep combine has not put up any blind man, but they are playing hard on the presumed blindness of the people.—Danville

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for pation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.

Yellow Jaundice Cured Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from yellow jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr.
Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours. M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky."
Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Brown advertises two new lots capes and jackets. See ad.

Dr. W. H. Brooks returned from Salisbury at noon today.

The county candidates left at noon today for Pleasant Garden to speak this afternoon.

Wharton Bros. have an array of new articles for your inspection. Read ad on second page.

J. M. Hendrix & Co. have something to say about the advantages of paying cash as you buy. Read their ad.

R. D. Phillips, formerly clerk in Clegg's Hotel, but now of Selma, spent last night in the city and returned to Selma at noon to-day.

Hats, caps, and in fact almost anything seasonable in the clothing and furnishing lines may be found at the store of C. M. Vanstory & Co. See ad.

Mr. Claude Beard and bride, who were married in Mt. Airy this morning, passed through at noon today on a bridal tour to Washington and New York.

C. M. Vanstory has returned from New York, Baltimore and other northern markets, where he has been selecting the latest novelties in hats, neckwear, etc.

R. W. Brooks has moved his office from the little building on Lewis street to the Eagle Foundry building, just across the street from his former office. He has two rooms in the Eagle building nicely fitted up, and has a handsome office.

The reception to the Normal girls, planned by the members of the Baptist church for next Friday night, has been postponed until November 4th, there being a reception at the Normal on the former date, given by the old students to the new.

The notice saying that the "London Gaiety Girls" will show again tonight is a mistake, which we discovered too late to correct. The Opera House, instead of the show, goes into new hands today, Mr. Bogart having leased it to Dr. Griffith. The show people left on the 7:32 train this morning.

The Fishplate-Katz Company, high art clothiers, have opened a nobby line of suits, overcoats and furnishing goods this week, and solicit their friends and patrons to look through the lines. Special line of sample overcoats, bought below value, are on sale. An early call will insure a satisfactory solution.

Rev. Dr. P. L. Groome left this morning for Baltimore to take a special historical course in Johns Hopkins University, preparatory to getting up his History of North Carolina Methodism. Dr. Groome received a scholarship from Johns Hopkins recently, and will remain there during the whole session of '98 and '99.

Greensboro 23, Bingham School 0.

While Greensboro won the game yesterday afternoon the score does not show the possibilities of the Bingham school team by any means. The local team being much heavier, made gains on mass plays, but did comparatively little around the Bingham ends. Some of the strongest men in the line had had scarcely any practice, this being their first game. If they have the opportunity they will develop into a team the school should be proud of. For Greensboro the team as a whole shows decided improvement in its playing.

ODELL'S

The Sweetest Place on Earth

is home. But perhaps your home isn't. If it isn't, then carefully consider the question. It may be.

First, Bad Temper. This is the greatest home-wrecker. But bad temper is often due to lack of home comforts and conveniences.

That old Cooking Stove you are talking to the man of the house—you go home expecting a prime dinner, ready just on time. No wonder you don't get it. As a remedy we offer

Peninsular Ranges. They have won their way to the front and hold the palm as the handsomest, most successful Range in the world. Then if you don't want a Range, why, our Cooking Stoves just can't be beat. The Woodlawn is our old standby. Ten years of trial have proved its merit—and it has been growing better all the time.

Foot Mats. We have them—Wire and Cocoa—all sizes and all prices. Mats. Cheaper than those made out of corn husks, shucks, beat a piece of old carpet—and protect your new one.

Odell Hardware Co.

ODELL'S

Har- in your fittings and furnishings—something that is al- mony ways desirable in a home. For years we have made a specialty of fine hardware. You can't afford to build or remodel your home until you see what we have in this line. We will sell you hardware to harmonize with your walls and your woods. Then we have Grates and Tiles. To harmonize with your hardware. Have you an idea that a handsome grate, with tile hearth and facing costs 'way out of sight? All a delusion—you will find our prices astonishingly low. Then don't forget Mantels. One of our specialties. We've hunted the market—came very near saying the world—over. If there's anything desirable made in a mantel we've got it. If something nice comes out we'll have it. Always on the look out. It will be worth your while to call and see them if you like pretty things. The prices are intended to harmonize with your pocketbook or bank account. They will do it.
